Time Out New York

February 19-26, 2004

Saturday 21

Rock, pop & soul

★Tiswas featuring the
Blondes, Inc. + The Inevitable
Breakups + Group Sounds

Don Hill's 9pm; $10, $5 with flyer. Getting producer Richard Lloyd (of Television) in their corner was a wise move for the four guys in the Blondes, Inc., who convey warmth and pep on a self-released CD. The power-poppers of the Inevitable Breakups have a new release, "Stephanie," that actually has the sound etched into a seven-inch slab of fossil-fuel extract. We didn't know they (whoever they are) still did that, but we're glad for it.
